Apologies:

None.

1. New TV in the JCR
 - a. It was confirmed that £3,500 has been spent on sofas, and the Junior Bursar agreed to compensate the TCSU by £1,700.
 - b. It was agreed that the Upper JCR should be decorated with film-rated paraphernalia, such as film posters.
 - c. It was agreed that no more than £2,000 will be spent on the television. Funds for this will be drawn from the remaining budget left over from the £5,000 initially agreed, after the cost of the cupboards of £600 has been taken into account.
2. Preliminary Freshers' Week assignments.
 - a. The preliminary Freshers' Week programme was confirmed.
 - b. It was confirmed that the entire TCSU committee will be in college for Freshers' Week.
 - c. It was agreed that Committee members will sign up for events online via a google doc. This will be completed by the next TCSU meeting.
3. Second hand book marketplace for Freshers' week.
 - a. Cornelius suggested a used book market place for academic books. This was well received by the Committee, and will be attached by Catriona to the timetable.
 - b. It was agreed that books should be donated to TCSU, and profits could go to charity.
4. Early Committee arrival for Freshers' week.
 - a. It was established that Freshers' arrive on Saturday 4th October.
 - b. President and Vice-President agreed to ask Junior Bursar about reimbursement for TCSU Committee who arrive early.
5. Matters arising from Liaison Meeting.
 - a. The Junior Bursar would like to know when night punting is taking place, and Catriona will arrange this.
