Matters concerning the Election

- It was noted that the bar needs to be booked for Husting's on Wednesday 22nd.
- Get in touch with CUSU, and find out first if they need the lists, and then work out how to manage the voting system.
- It was noted that an allegation of breach of constitution was accused of the acting President by a TCSU member concerning electoral convention. Having already consulted appropriate members of the TCSU Executive Committee, the Returning Officer outlined his decision to reject the allegation of an unconstitutional act, although to concede that an injustice had been committed, although unintentional and out of the failures of the Constitution to offer guidance for the unprecedented constitutional circumstances that the TCSU finds itself in in advance of the by-election. The Returning Officer expressed his decision on the complaint to the member, and offered the contact details of the TCSU's Senior Treasurer in case the member wished to pursue his/her allegation beyond the Executive Committee.
