

Wanipa Ndhlovu = BME Officer

Goals for the year

This College has a beautiful mix of cultures and backgrounds within its diverse student population and I believe that this should be acknowledged and celebrated. I want to ensure that Trinity is a place where minorities can feel safe, equal and appreciated, and somewhere that other BME students who are thinking of applying know that they will belong.

LENT 2019

Goals	Progress
Get the BME community within college together through some sort of event where we can get to know each other	Hosted the Diversity discussion with Dr Glen Rangwala on 28/02 BME mingle happened on 14/03 in the Blue Boar Common room Planning a BME/International Welfare tea with the Overseas Welfare Officer, Ludvig, to take place on 30/04.
Collaborate with other colleges to put on a BME social to promote unity in the wider university community	Planning on having a central colleges BME mingle at during Easter term.
Bring more visibility to the BME community in Trinity	Diversity event with Glen Rangwala held on 28/02. The event was covered by the Trinity College website and the article was well circulated on the internet via social media Black Cantabs x Trinity exhibition launch received local media coverage, as well as an article on the Trinity website. The launch on 13 th March was very well attended by members of the university, including the current Master and the new Master