Emily Song: President

Concerning lights along the avenue, the report on survey feedback taken to college council yesterday, and TCSU's position is to push for subtle lighting, although lighting is general recognised as less of an issue than Burrell's Field lighting.

The Gardens Committee meeting concluded that there will be an LGBT plaque by the LGBT Flag flowerbed, explaining the purpose of the planting of the coloured bulbs in the south paddock

There are plans in place to install benches in Angel Court, something else which was discussed in Garden Committee

The TCSU elections will happen on Friday 31st January, with the hustings on Wednesday 29th starting around 6:30pm. Role descriptions and committee headshots stating why potential candidates should apply, should be sent to the Vice President by the end of the week.

The President circulated an email with important dates for the handover, which committee members are encouraged to familiarise themselves with.

Liaison committee will meet next Tuesday, and it is expected that the college staff will speak to the Respect and Dignity campaign that they are leading at the present. TCSU's own agenda will be the opening of Wolfson Seminar Room for Easter term, improving location signposting around college and an update on putting laundry cards in the laundry rooms.

Grace Glevy: Access

The Access Officer briefs the committee on the CUSU shadowing scheme, which will run Thursday to Saturday for next three weeks. She asks committee members to be her eyes and ears in college, to assist with making sure all students are alright and taken care of during their stay.
